Dear Ms. Ferrer,

Greetings!

We are 4th-year students from Miriam College. As part of the requirements in our GEE 1.1 - Nature, Culture, and Spirituality, we are to do a Service-Learning Project. The group endeavors to help raise people's awareness of the importance of the Tamaraws and to help gather funds to help the rangers who are working for the conservation of the Tamaraws in Mindoro Island. Furthermore, the target beneficiaries of the fundraising are the Tamaraw and the Rangers. With this, they are in partnership with the Biodiversity Finance Initiative under the United Nations Development Programme and Tamaraw Conservation Program.

Attached is the Letter and our professor Ms. Louie Parungao is also included in the email.

Thank you and We sincerely hope that this will merit your immediate and most favorable response. Should you have questions or clarifications, please feel free to contact me through my email ashisharma549@gmail.com or my phone number 09392549999.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
Aayushi Sharma

Greetings!

Dear Ms. Ferrer,

Would like to follow up on the film showing for Suwag O Suko scheduled on December 4, 2021, at 5 pm?

We are 4th-year students from Miriam College. As part of the requirements in our GEE 1.1 - Nature, Culture, and Spirituality, we are to do a Service-Learning Project. In partnership with the Biodiversity Finance Initiative under the United Nations Development Programme and Tamaraw Conservation Program, the group has chosen to help raise people's awareness of the importance of the Tamaraws.

In this regard, we have sent the letter for the request of the screening rights of the documentary showing of "Suwag o Suko" via Zoom. The group is organizing an event entitled Nature's Treasure: Tamaraws & the Rangers on December 04, 2021, at 5:00 pm wherein we will be showing the documentary film.

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Aayushi Sarma
