THE OCDMS (Online Capacity Development Market System)

- OCDMS is a one-stop website showcasing the demand and supply sides of the capacity development.
- It was created to address local governments units' (LGU) capacity development needs with the current program offerings of service providers.

THE OCDMS

- It is a website that stores LGUs' Capacity Development Agenda (CapDev Agenda), which contains their capacity building requirements, and provides a venue for service providers to advertise their programs and services directed at LGUs.
- The main feature of the OCDMS is the matching mechanism that takes place in the system. The system initially matches the needs of the LGU with the available program interventions offered in the system
- Local Resource Institutes (LRIs)/CapDev Service Providers can showcase their capacity development interventions/services for LGUs.
- LGUs can avail the capacity development interventions/services that are offered by LRIs/institutions for their capdev requirements.

What is OCDMS?

The Online CapDev Market System (OCDMS) is a one stop website showcasing the DEMAND and SUPPLY side of the capacity development. The OCDMS was created to address the LGUs' capdev needs with the current program offerings of service providers. The OCDMS has the following features:

It is only the webiste that stores LGU's Capacity Development Agenda (CapDev Agenda), which contains their capacity building requirements, and provides a venue for service providers to advertise their programs and services directed at LGUs.

LGUs interested in capacity building services only need to upload their CapDev Agenda. The system scans their submission and uses keywords to instantly match them with the appropriate service provider.
