The DENR, through the Gender and Development Office is mandated, among others, to implement capacity development programs considering the differing needs, roles and expectations of both men and women in the environment and natural resources (ENR) sector, thereby contributing to the overall development goals of the country.

In the review of the DENR's ENR Supervisory and Management Course Modules, the National Greening Program (NGP) and Coastal and Marine Ecosystem Management Program (CMEMP), were recommended, together with the other eight priority programs of DENR to undergo the Harmonized Gender and Development Guidelines (HGDG) to further sharpen their gender-responsive implementation, and increase budget and expenditures attributable to GAD hence, this training.

It is envisioned that this activity - Training on Ensuring Gender-Responsive Implementation of the NGP and CMEMP - will increase capacity of program implementers in mainstreaming gender and development concerns in both programs. This activity will be participated by GAD Focal Persons and their Assistants of Bureaus, Services, Attached Agencies and Regional Offices, PENROs, CENROs and other implementers of ENGP and CMEMP on
