Good day!

This has reference to the project titled "Carrying Capacity Assessment of Coron, Palawan". We would like to inform you of our scheduled travel to Coron, Palawan on October 11 to November 1, 2021 to interview with tourists and business establishments, area measurement of tourism sites and establishments, in-situ water analysis, soil sample collection, terrestrial flora and fauna assessment, marine biodiversity assessment, geo-hazard and vulnerability assessment, and gathering of secondary data.

In line with this, we would like to request for technical assistance during the fieldwork.

Kindly see attached memorandum for your reference.

Thank you and keep safe!
