This refers to the attached memorandum dated 17 December 2021 from the Undersecretary for Policy, Planning and International Affairs, Atty. Jonas B. Leones re: Invitation from the International Seabed Authority (ISA) to women experts to participate on the upcoming Conference on Women in the Law of the Sea, which will be held in March-June 2022 (date to be confirmed).

The ISA is inviting all interested women legal experts, economists, scientists, experts in geopolitics and industry representatives working in the field of the law of the sea to submit their resumés, and short descriptions of their proposed presentations on any of the sessions listed in the attached memorandum.

Interested participant/speaker should submit their expressions of interest, including copies of the speakers' resumés and short descriptions of proposed presentations, through moao@dfa.gov.ph and moao.div2@dfa.gov.ph.

More information to the Conference, including brief description of the session, may be viewed at <https://isa.org.jm/conference-women-law-sea-2022>. Deadline of submission of expressions of interest is on 11 February 2022.

For information and consideration.
