This Congress will be held in a hybrid format at the Sabah Convention Centre in Kota Kinabalu, Sabah, on the 24-29 May 2022, and will feature six thematic groups:

- Nature-based solutions for health and wellbeing
- Governance of protected and conserved areas
- Connectivity and transboundary conservation
- Effective protected and conserved areas
- Economic and financial sustainability of protected and conserved areas
- Urban conservation and a new generation

Representatives from protected area authorities, other government agencies, NGOs, academia, youth, the private sector, Indigenous peoples and local communities are invited to participate. congress.sabahparks.org.my/

This Congress will be a landmark event, which is expected to attract conservation experts from across Asia and beyond, and to set the agenda for the region's protected and conserved areas with IUCN, International Union for Conservation of Nature and the IUCN World Commission on Protected Areas (WCPA). It is being hosted by the State Government of Sabah through the Sabah Parks Department.
