Subject: Invitation to the BIOFIN Regional Dialogue for Europe, Asia, and Pacific, 8-10 November 2022 in the Philippines

Dear Mr. Aragon,

I am pleased to herewith extend you a personal invitation to attend the 8th Regional Dialogue on Biodiversity Finance for Europe, Asia, and Pacific, 8-10 November 2022 in the Philippines (expected arrival date 7th November 2022, departure date 11th November 2022).

The Biodiversity Finance Initiative (BIOFIN) is managed by UNDP under its Ecosystems and Biodiversity Programme. BIOFIN is financed by the European Union and the Governments of Belgium, Flanders, Germany, Norway, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom. BIOFIN supports countries to design and implement national biodiversity finance plans, based on its core methodology the BIOFIN Workbook.

BIOFIN also functions as a global, regional, and national experience sharing platform. One of the most important activities to this extent are the annual regional dialogues, bringing together delegates from each region.

The workshop, organized in this context, has the following objectives:

- Facilitate experience sharing and technical discussions among countries
- Discuss the results from BIOFIN implementation to inform global fora and future programming
- Explore opportunities for biodiversity finance solutions/investments in BIOFIN countries

We also wish to invite you and Assistant Protected Area Superintendent Neil Del Mundo as Resource Persons for Session 3 - The heart and soul of BD Finance : Social and economic impacts. We would like to hear your views on the role of the indigenous people's group i.e., Mangyan on the conservation of the protected area and the critically endangered tamaraws. Further information on the session can be provided by Anabelle Plantilla (anabelle.plantilla@undp.org).

We are keen to benefit from your experience and look forward to your participation.

With kind regards,

Anabelle Plantilla
