Dear sir/madam,

Good day,

I am a senior, retired ofw and would like to cut the trees that we planted maybe 15 years ago in my property for my personal use.

My question is do I have to secure permit from DENR/any other govt. offices to cut these trees in my property which I have planted?

If there is a law that prohibits cutting of trees without permit, would appreciate it very much if your office can provide the said exact R.A.

My property is located in Busuanga, Palawan.

Your immediate clarification and response will be much appreciated.

Thank you.
