Hello Mam,

Good day!

I have been requesting the technical description, and this has been in the loop for almost 2 weeks now, but still no response from RECORDS DEPARTMENT. I have submitted all the required complete documents since last week, but I don't know what's hampering my request.

My apologies for the constant everyday email because the REGISTER OF DEEDS needs this document to continue processing the transfer of title to our names.

I hope that the proper department responsible for releasing the technical description will respond to us.

You may refer to our previous emails for the completeness of the documents submitted.

Best regards,

Wally Boy Casuga
