Subject: A&D Titling Application Concern

To: actioncenter@denr.gov.ph <actioncenter@denr.gov.ph>

Good day,

This is Janela from Palawan. I had my purchased Alienable and disposable piece of land purchased 2 years ago. I went to the DENR for a title application, unfortunately I was given a list of requirements to comply in Manila which everyone is not familiar with yet because I was told that these are additional requirements needed to comply from the region to LRA.

May I ask for help with the procedure and all list of requirements and which correct department has to go and everything that I need to comply here first before sending somebody to process in the region?

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Thank you
