Dear all,

To contrast the culprit all lies alibis

After sending my 12September complain when he intentionally parked in-front of our gate and instructing his cronies to get some aggregates in his illegally park car that we paid for aggregates until now he is benefited even without spending a cent he re-ittaliates by having me summoned by his barangay colleagues by using his aggressive senior citizen he called caretaker when I just saw that person first time here in Tambis, by complaining that I am a road obstruction and Paninita? See attached file ATTCH2 copy of Bgry Summoned. Written by senior citizen when I ask them "cno nagpa utos sa inyo na dyan magkuha ng manambak? And I told her "ok sge na pikturan ko na man din, Aming panambak yan" I get inside our gate when another senior citizen rushing with video shouting "cnu ka ano pangalan mo, I said "d mo na kailangan malaman, the old lady keep shouting infront of our gate as if she is the owner of another lot when that is the first time I saw that old lady. Since shes vidoeing I closed our gate and get inside. She still shouting outside "lumabas ka dyan harapin mo ako" I didnt because I dont know her and shes old for my match, but I am filling now a Harrassment case for that old lady.

When someone getting your stuff that you have paid for and saw someone getting it without permission what is that? Theft right? When someone instructed it for you to do that, what you called that? WLANG DELICADESA.

Road obstruction? What!!!!

See attached files these are more closed to road obstruction

A plant box built outside your lot that's road property, if you will put plant box adjust inside your fence not affecting road area, hindsight please!!

The white car attachment in contrasting that he is renting it. See the actual rented space and the actual where he placed his inop car, showing arrogancy.

ATTCH1 the attachment is the summoned/complain just this month 2023 and the summoned of Rodney last 2021 Zoom it and see the encircled seems one man penmanship. The old lady caretaker and Rodney isOne? The old lady just meet there once should have guts to write that long complains and sent me in barangay? Smell something fishy. This only shows how someone doing everything after was caught NO SCAPE in all his DIRTY LITTLE SECRETS when everybody believed in him that he is a good person that somebody is maligning his GOOOOD REEEPUUTATION.

See attached files booked bind thick certificates and permits from barangay as he mentioned we have none. He is a good one attending bgry hearings of course that's your call, are you moron summoning someone and yet you will not attend? Oh wait, last election did you and your family voted? The incumbent kapitan and some of kagawad was all in good terms with you right? Just one text they rescue you, where are you during election? Sad the incumbent lost her seat, sad if you and your family just had voted maybe she won again, but since before long holidays from 29Oct till Nov 14 your family taking the vacation of their life in your new place, Coron.

A government employees never care to participate in barangay election, it SHOWS youre a good citizen.

Thats all.

Due to attachment demand high memory I will be sending attachments in separate email by Monday Office hours

Thank you.

Dear Sir and Madame,

This is in connection to the letter emailed to various departments of Mr. Elbert Reynoso dated received by CENRO-Coron on October 31, 2023 alleging the undersigned of violating traffic rules by illegally parking his car and characterized as abusive and ignorant public servant. I am saddened of Mr. Reynoso's sentiment on that very instant wherein he took that unique picture. He brought the matter to all your attention. As far as I can remember the very purpose I went out of my vehicle was to open our house garage gate and pick some packages. In that very same picture please observe that my car was very close to our gate to give access and courtesy on vehicle. It was never done intentionally. Be informed further that our area has only an access road and situated on a dead end road wherein no vehicle/s pass.

This action of Mr. Reynoso is a product of his long time resentment to the undersigned since we complained of some violations of their resort, a commercial establishment situated in a residential area. To date as per conversation and information with the local barangay official, said establishment has no issued permit and barangay clearance. We as a good and law abiding citizen attend to barangay hearings whenever invited as called for by Barangay local officials.

And to end, all his complaint were answered by the undersigned thru emails and Memoranda since year 2020.

Again, this matter was meant to malign the undersigned which he zealously protected.

Sincerely,

RODNEY G. VERIAN
