Greetings!

The UP National Center for Transportation Studies (UP NCTS) will be conducting the online training course on Child Road Traffic Injury Prevention (CRTIP) via zoom platform. This Course consisting of lectures and workshops will be running from October 9-13, 2023.

The objectives of the Course are to make the participants: (1) formulate child road traffic injury prevention and safe school zone initiatives utilizing the Star Rating for Schools (SR4S) tool; (2) apply the SR4S tool in conducting school star rating surveys, data processing, and analysis; (3) use an evidence-based tool for measuring, managing, and communicating the risks children are exposed to on their journeys to school; and (4) explain the basic concepts of Child-Responsive Urban Planning.

The Course is FREE OF CHARGE and is open to all qualified personnel from the government sector involved in transportation and related functions. Participating local government units or government agencies should endorse 3-5 participants. The number of slots is fifty (50) and as such, an early response is suggested.

You may click this link for the online application: https://bit.ly/CRTIP_OCT_AppForm
Form Once the application is validated, the participant will receive a unique zoom link for the proper event. The zoom link should not be shared to anyone. Only registered/endorsed participants are allowed to join the training course.

Deadline of registration is on October 6, 2023.

Attached is the invitation letter and tentative program for your reference.

Please feel free to contact us for further inquiries at telephone nos. 8929-0495, 8981-8500 local 3552 or email address at [\[upncts.training.upd@up.edu.ph\]](mailto:upncts.training.upd@up.edu.ph).
