Inclusive Dates:	June 7-10, 2022
Venue:	Asturias Hotel and Snake Island, Puerto Princesa City, Palawan

I. EVALUATION OF THE COURSE

• Technical Content:

The objectives of this course are to understand the concept of marine protected areas (MPAs) and their relevance to biodiversity and conservation, understanding the range of MPA management approaches and MPA updates. Thus, marine environment is a vital resource of life on Earth thus Marine Protected Areas conserve biodiversity, enhance resilience, increasing recognition-for maintaining healthy fish stock. Whereas, the DENR Technical personnel must be capacitated on providing technical assistance in the implementation of MPA management. Also, to be able to conduct assessment and monitoring in the field.

• Impressions/Comments:

This activity was organized to capacitate the technical staff of Occidental Mindoro and Palawan provinces and able to understand the MPA mandates. The 4-day training/workshop was focused on the fundamentals of MPA management, marine ecosystems and Ocean processes, BAMS review per TB 2019-3 and 4, and Practicum, data processing and reporting.

II. RELEVANCE OF THE LEARNING EVENT TO PARTICIPANTS WORK/FUNCTION

This learning event was helpful to my current work assignment in Conservation and Development Section as technical staff. The attendee was able to enhanced the knowledge to MPA module 1 and 2 in order to deliver the technical services needed in the fieldwork in related to coastal and marine ecosystem related activities. Also, the practicum for monitoring and assessment in Mangrove, Seagrass and Corals improved the ability to perform the identification in the related field.

III. RECOMMENDATIONS

Continuous capacitation of MPA module 3 to 5
Be involved in MPA activities
