8. MESSAGE : CENRO Leonard T. Caluya marked the opening of a Two-day Orientation Workshop by delivering his message. He encouraged every participants to be attentive and participative as this kind of orientation workshop is necessary to further capacitate each participants in performing environmental law enforcement activities. He emphasizes the Core Values of DENR that should be uphold for better execution of assigned tasks. He also challenge each participants to be consistent on the DENR policies when coordinating with LGUs especially on matters involving cutting of trees. Finally, he emphasized that while there is a saying that goes this way "those who have less in life must have more in laws", we must act and do environmental law enforcement activities in accordance with our existing policies, rules and regulations.

Engr. Rosita F. Castulo, DMO, emphasizes the mandates of DENR when it comes to responsibility in implementing and enforcing environmental laws.

9. LECTURES

The speakers discussed the following topics:

DAY 1

- a. Violations concerning trees and other forest products:
 - Section 77 of PD 705
 - Section 27 (c) (v) ; Section 27 (f) (g) (i) of RA 9147
 - Section 18 (c) (d) (i) of RA 11038
- b. Violations concerning unlawful and illegal occupation on government lands:
 - Section 78 of PD 705
 - Section 94 of RA 8550
 - Section 27 (c) (ii) of RA 9147
 - Article 51 of PD 1067
 - Section 18 (n) (o) (u) (v) of RA 11038
- c. Mining and Quarrying:
 - Section 103 of RA 7942, theft of minerals
 - Transport of minerals without proper Delivery Receipt
- d. Miscellaneous laws, rules and regulations
 - Salient features of RA 8003
 - Plea Bargaining
 - Strategic Law Suit Against Public Participation (SLAPP)

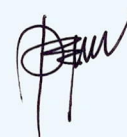

DAY 2

- a. With search warrant
 - Application for Search Warrant
 - Motion for two (2) alternative devices
 - Service of Search Warrant
 - Conduct of orderly search
 - Return of Search Warrant
- b. Without Search Warrant
 - Procedures in conducting Warrantless Arrest
- c. Evidence gathering

10. WORKSHOP

During workshops, the participants were divided into three teams (Team Narra, Team Quezon and Team Rizal). Activities conducted during workshop are as follows:

- a. Scenario of actual apprehension of moving conveyance (topdown) loaded with lumbers;
- b. Presentation of apprehension report and pertinent attachments
- c. Drafting and presentation of the following:
 - application for Search Warrant
 - Motion two (2) alternative devices
 - Return of Search Warrant

11. COMMENTS

The following inconsistencies were noticed by the speakers during presentation of output for each activity workshop:

- a. Apprehension Report:
 - Should be specific in describing the apprehended items especially on conveyances;
 - Always identify yourselves, establish your authority, ask to present permits, inform their violation, and always informed their rights (Miranda Doctrine);
 - Pictures should be clear, as much as possible showing the suspect/s still onboard on the conveyance;
- b. Drafting application for Search Warrant
 - Should be specific in detailing the exact location of the subject house, as the owner has maybe other houses;
 - Should be specific for the place to be searched, and the items to be searched;
 - Finally, the authentication of those who made the surveillance pictures and video
- c. Motion for two (2) alternative devices
 - Make sure that the specification of the gadget/mobile phone to used has been correctly stated

12. ISSUES CLARIFIED DURING THE ORIENTATION - WORKSHOP:

- a. What agency will issue a certification concerning wildlife subject for filing a criminal complaint under RA 9147. Pursuant to SEP Law, the PCSD will issue such certification;
- b. For close van passing through a forest product monitoring station/checkpoint, search could only be allowed if the driver gave his consent (warrantless search) if he resist, request for the assistance of PNP;
- c. For Chainsaw, though the suspects are engaging in illegal logging activities but not caught in the actual use of chainsaw which supposed to be supported by pictures, better file complaint under Section 7 item 1 of RA 9175. But if the perpetrators were caught in the actual use of chainsaw, file complaint under Section 7 item 4 of RA 9175;
- d. For Plea Bargaining, it should be understood that there must be mutual agreement between the prosecution and the defense party. Even if the court finds merit for the motion for plea bargaining however, if the complainant refuse to accept it, then no plea bargaining should be happened;

13. RECOMMENDATIONS:

- a. Regular conduct of refresher training course for all personnel under Enforcement Section;
- b. Give considerable time for workshops to enable enforcers to be familiarized on the required actions/procedures to be taken on the subject activity;
- c. Training for team leaders how to handle a team in times of operations/investigations;

14. ATTACHMENTS:

- a. Copy of CENRO Special Order No. 014-2022
- b. Program of Activities
- c. Attendance
- d. Pictures
