This is to provide you a copy of the advisory from the Bureau of Animal Industry (BAI) regarding the handling and management of all cases in pet birds in veterinary clinics and hospitals. The said advisory was issued in response to the recent detection of the Avian Influenza type A subtype H5N1 from a private aviary in Pasay City.

Relative to this, you are hereby instructed to ensure, monitor and to advise our clients engaged in captive bird breeding facilities to implement biosecurity measures to prevent possible transmission of the Avian Influenza virus. It also advised that the Region together with our field offices (PENRO/CENRO) to report any unusual deaths/mortalities of wild birds from the breeding facilities or those that are identified as bird congregation sites within your area of jurisdiction.
