DATE: September 9, 2022

Respectfully submitted is the summary of Administrative Adjudication of the white Nissan Presage Wagon with Plate No. BEA-870 loaded with 44 sacks of charcoal apprehended at Brgy. Tagburos, Puerto Princesa City.

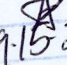

I. FACTS OF THE CASE

On December 6, 2021, at around 8:45 in the morning, the above-mentioned vehicle was spotted by the Forest Protection Officers on duty at Sta. Lourdes Forest Product Monitoring Station. A week before the apprehension, there was information that a white Nissan Presage Wagon was regularly transporting charcoal from Brgy. Bacungan, Puerto Princesa City hauling charcoal at least twice a week. Since then, the vehicle has been under surveillance. Since the vehicle did not stop at the checkpoint, a hot pursuit was done until the vehicle came to stop at Brgy. Tagburos, Puerto Princesa City near Tagburos Elementary School. The driver Mr. Bobot Dambac Nolin was unable to show any permit for its load. He, however, immediately obeyed when he was ordered to bring the vehicle to the CENRO PPC compound. The vehicle was loaded with charcoal including the front seat, and upon inventory, it has a total of 44 sacks. During the apprehension, the driver said that the vehicle was owned by his 2nd cousin Mr. Enrico Cabrera Jimenez who also knows that he is using it to source charcoal for his business. However, during the hearing, he admitted that he already bought the vehicle from his cousin three (3) years ago. He also mentioned that he was buying charcoal from the North because the price is much cheaper than buying charcoal here in the City proper. He is using charcoal for his roasted chicken business and also selling it in his Sari-sari Store.

I. FACTS OF THE CASE

On December 6, 2021, at around 8:45 in the morning, the above-mentioned vehicle was spotted by the Forest Protection Officers on duty at Sta. Lourdes Forest Product Monitoring Station. A week before the apprehension, there was information that a white Nissan Presage Wagon was regularly transporting charcoal from Brgy. Bacungan, Puerto Princesa City hauling charcoal at least twice a week. Since then, the vehicle has been under surveillance. Since the vehicle did not stop at the checkpoint, a hot pursuit was done until the vehicle come to stop at Brgy. Tagburos, Puerto Princesa City near Tagburos Elementary School. The driver Mr. Bobot Dambac Nolin was unable to show any permit for its load. He, however, immediately obeyed when he was ordered to bring the vehicle to the CENRO PPC compound. The vehicle was loaded with charcoal including the front seat, and upon inventory, it has a total of 44 sacks. During the apprehension, the driver said that the vehicle was owned by his 2nd cousin Mr. Enrico Cabrera Jiminez who also knows that he is using it to source charcoal for his business. However, during the hearing, he admitted that he already bought the vehicle from his cousin three (3) years ago. He also mentioned that he was buying charcoal from the North because the price is much cheaper than buying charcoal here in the City proper. He is using charcoal for his roasted chicken business and also selling it in his Sari-sari Store.
