MEMORANDUM

FOR : The CENR Officer

FROM : Unit Chief, Monitoring and Enforcement Section

SUBJECT : COMMUNITY MEETING IN MANGUYANG GLORIA,
ORIENTAL MINDORO FOR INTENSIFICATION OF FOREST PROTECTION ACTIVITIES

Pursuant to the Revised Forestry Code of the Philippines (PD 705), Chainsaw Act (RA 9175), DENR Administrative Order 97-32, Executive Order No. 192, Executive Order No 263 and other related laws, strengthening the protection of forest resources is deemed to be necessary. Also, the collection of these resources must be regulated for sustainability and must be regulated by the DENR with the help and participation of the communities living in it.

The DENR CENRO Roxas personnel, particularly under of Monitoring and Enforcement Section conducted a community meeting in Brgy. Manguyang, Gloria, Oriental Mindoro on March 08, 2023. Be informed that several apprehensions of abandoned forest products were made in this barangay thus, selected as target for this meeting which aims to involve the community/people of barangay Manguyang for forest protection intensification.

The said meeting was attended by the residents (17 males and 7 females) of the barangay with NCIP representatives and Philippine Army representatives. The meeting started with the remarks and concerns of the NCIP representative, Ms. Eden Cenon. She emphasized some of the concerns of the Indigenous People, including their issue on their ancestral land and boundaries. Their rights to their ancestral lands were also discussed in the meeting. CENRO personnel reiterated that the protection of these lands will be a collaboration with the IP community, NCIP and the DENR.

The last part of the meeting was the agreement between all the attendees where in all must cooperate for the intensification of law enforcement, conservation and utilization to achieve the sustainability of the available resources.

Attached are the geo-tagged photos and other documentation.

For information and record.
