FIRST QUARTER REPORT ON THE ACTIVITIES UNDERTAKEN ON THE INTEGRATED COASTAL MANAGEMENT

INTRODUCTION

The Integrated Coastal Management (ICM) is a process of governance consisting of legal and institutional framework/s. It ensures the development and management plans for coastal zones to be integrated within environmental and social goals. This ultimately promotes the sustainable management of coastal areas. For this quarter, the following activities regarding the ICM updates are narrated below.

UPDATING ON ICM WITH CENRO-ROXAS CDS PERSONNEL

An updating regarding the Integrated Coastal Management (ICM) was held at CENRO Roxas. Responsible individuals mainly include personnel from the Conservation Development Section (CDS). Task distribution and scheduling was thoroughly conducted for the said activity.

Coordination with municipal officials of Bulalacao and San Teodoro was conducted regarding the Integrated Coastal Management (ICM). Key officials include Mayors and Municipal Agricultural Offices (MAOs). The current conditions of the coastal areas within their respective jurisdictions were discussed. Interviews regarding the Marine Protected Areas (MPAs) and if there is a current Integrated Coastal Management Plan (ICMP) is implemented in these coastal zones were conducted. Necessary contact details of each office were also garnered for future inquiries. This activity shall serve as secondary data gathering for the ICM.

PARTICIPATION IN THE ORIENTAL MINDORO MARINE PROTECTED AREA AND FISHERY LAW ENFORCEMENT NETWORK (MPAN) MEETING

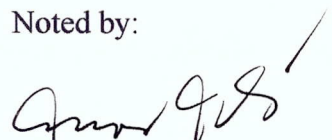

The quarterly conference meeting on the Oriental Mindoro Marine Protected Area (MPA) and Fishery Law Enforcement Network Meeting was also attended to represent the PENR Office last March 3, 2023 at BIMAS Hotel, Brgy. Tawiran, Calapan City. Updates such as the ICM and VIP PASA were briefed to the audience representing different agencies such as PNP, PCG, BFAR, PAgO, PG ENRO, PLO, MinSU, MFI and LGU representatives from the 1st and 2nd district municipalities of Oriental Mindoro. The relay of these updates shall serve as an information dissemination tool for the conduct of the said activities.
