PART I (To be accomplished by Participant)

EVALUATION OF THE COURSE

Technical Content

The objective of this workshop is to refresh the understanding of Land Classification and Reclassification processes; level-off with the current status of FLBD output in the Province of Palawan in relation to the passage of RA 11038 otherwise known as the ENIPAS; present and discuss the geo-hazard areas in Palawan including the results of the study on vulnerability assessment to be considered in the assessment of areas for land classification/reclassification; and prepared an action plan with its corresponding physical and budgetary requirements for the review and updating of the FLBD outputs including the coverage of the UPF in the province of Palawan.

Impressions / Comments

The participants were all active in participating and the speakers are clever and conversant in accommodating all the comments and suggestion of participants.

RELEVANCE OF THE LEARNING EVENT TO PARTICIPANT'S WORK/FUNCTION

It helps me perform my job/task specifically in my designated field of assignment (GIS) and it easy to understand the technical terms, process and how to assess areas for land classification/reclassification.

RECOMMENDATIONS

It is hereby recommended that Higher Office to conduct another or series of training annex to this.

POST LEARNING ACTION PLAN/PROPOSAL

I proposed to conduct re-echo/ IEC regarding with the topic discussed in the workshop.
