NARRATIVE REPORT

On the dawn of May 1, 2023 Park Rangers Jacinto Gedaca, Mark Lester De Lara, Von Edward Vallesterro, Russel Delara and Omar Christopher Villas conducted patrolling and established check point within the vicinities of Sitio San Pablo, Alipaoy, Paluan, Occ. Mindoro as responded to the directive of Protected Area Superintendent Arlene V. Francisco to intensify the patrolling in the area.

As they stationed in the said place, they notice a one particular motorcycle go back in forth, so they decided to investigate and follow its route. At around 2:13 am, upon tracking the motorcycle, they found the bunch of lumber beside the road near Calawagan Mountain Resort. It may be the result of checkpoint that the team established earlier resulting in the abandonment of the lumber in that area to avoid trapped or apprehension.

The aggregate volume of apprehended lumber of Pahutan and Lauan species was 305 board feet in different sizes.

The apprehended abandoned forest product was brought to MCWS Ranger Station in Sitio Ulasan, Harrison, Paluan for proper documentation and safe keeping.

For information and record.
