54 I. OPENING PROGRAM 55

56 The CALSANAG WFR- PAMB Meeting started around 9:00 in the morning
57 with an Opening Program led by the PAMB and PAMO. The program formally started
58 through invocation led by Hon. Sulpicio G. Machado of Binonga, San Agustin and 59 the singing of the Phil. National Anthem led by Hon. Janine M. Gabaldon of Linawan, 60 San Andres while Brgy. Sec. Rulinda T. Moreno of Doña Juana, San Agustin hosted 61 the meeting.
62

63 The number of attendees comprised of ten (10) PAMB Members, and the 64 remaining seventeen (17) were concerned officials/ observers/ guests from the 65 Municipal and Barangay LGU's, and personnel's from Romblon State University and
66 DENR-PENRO.
67

68 Hon. Resty G. Gabaldon of Linawan, San Andres delivered his heartfelt
69 Welcome Remarks before the Board being the host barangay. He acknowledged the 70 untiring effort of the DENR and the members of the Board as well as other guests.
71 Lastly, he inspired all LGU officials to be more vigilant in protecting the watershed.
72

73 After this, authorized representatives of Local Chief Executives namely Vice 74 Mayor Dishan F. Servaños of MLGU Calatrava; Hon. Victor M. Romero, LLB. of 75 MLGU San Agustin; MPDC Marlon A. Azor of MLGU San Andres; and Dr.
76 Borromeo B. Motin of Romblon State University delivered their Inspirational Talks.
77

78 Vice Mayor Servaños shared his knowledge and expertise relative to the 79 development and management of the protected area being the former Municipal 80 Planning & Development Coordinator of MLGU-Calatrava. He emphasized the 81 ecological services of the watershed and encouraged everyone to initiate the 82 development for the benefits of all.
83

84 Hon. Romero mentioned the importance of policy making and commitment of 85 MLGU-San Agustin to attain the goal of protecting and conserving the watershed. He 86 also mentioned to be vigilant and conserve the environment from any destruction.
87

88 MPDC Azor of MLGU-San Andres affirmed their support and commitment to
89 the preservation of the watershed and effectively enforce protected area laws. He said
90 that LGU hired "Bantay Kalikasan" to completely protect their area of jurisdiction
91 from timber poaching. Lastly, he told that road opening project within their 92 municipality shall be selective and undergone economic studies before implemented.
93

94 Dr. Borromeo B. Motin of Romblon State University and Head of TWG of 95 PAMB explained on how to balance the conservation and development. He 96 commented also on the mining case of Sibuyan as one of the aggressive developments.
97 In addition, he said that conservation is responsibility of all and shall start from the
98 level of the community.

100 Then, PASu Raymund G. Inocencio delivered Closing Remarks. He
101 acknowledged the commitment of all the members of the Board and other stakeholders
102 in their development initiatives, environmental awareness and spirit of volunteerism on 103 the implementation of different programs, projects and activities of the protected area.

105 Likewise, in behalf of the OIC, PENR Officer Arnoldo A. Blaza, Jr. and the 106 CWFR-PAMB Chairperson/Regional Executive Director Lormelyn E. Claudio, CESO
107 IV, the management conveyed deepest appreciation to the unwavering support of all
108 PAMB Members for the success of this meeting.
109

110 II. PAMB MEETING PROPER

111 CALL TO ORDER

112 Since the Regional Executive Director and PAMB Chairperson Lormelyn E.
113 Claudio, CESO IV is not available, the PASu called nomination from the members of 114 the Board to elect presiding officer for the orderly conduct of meeting.
115
116

118 Accordingly, the members of the Board unanimously elected Hon. Resty G.
119 Gabaldon, Punong Barangay of Linawan, San Andres as the presiding officer. The 120 PAMB Meeting called to order at 9:00 in the morning followed by roll call and 121 presentation of the approved Notice of Meeting/Letter of Invitations. After 122 determination of the presence of the Members and representations, the presiding
123 officer declared a quorum. The chair requested the PASu to present the agenda for its 124 consideration and adoption.

126 After adoption of the agenda by the Board, the presiding officer led the 127 meeting conscientiously.
