Sir:

I appreciate well your response in a Letter dated January 6, 2023 through your Chief, MSD, THELMO S. HERNANDEZ, wherein, you have fully agreed with my position that the "confidentiality rule" respecting ADR is not absolute as it does admit "exceptions."

However, you opted to seek first the opinion of your legal division to guide you insofar as on how you will proceed regarding my pending request, which I appreciate too as a reasonable move on your part as a matter of prudence.

Nevertheless, I am hoping that the same would not stay long and be resolved by your legal division soon so that all lingering questions hounding my mind regarding the surrounding circumstances of my brother's death during the ADR proceedings in your office will be eventually put to rest.

Looking forward on the feedback of your legal division within a reasonable time, I remain.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,
