This has reference to the above-subject letter of Engr. Aldric G. Eco, a Geodetic Engineer who was hired by the Department of Education to conduct isolated survey of a parcel of land actually occupied by Buenavista Elementary School located in Barangay Buenavista, Puerto Princesa City.

The subdivision plan is subject for approval however it remains pending at the Office of the Surveys and Mapping Division due to lack of public land application (Request for Special Patent in case of school site/dep-ed).

Please be informed that the Department of Education is not yet required by this Office to apply or file their Request for Special Patent for Buenavista Elementary School considering that the parcel of land actually occupied by the school has no lot number yet and this Office is awaiting for the approved plan.

Due to the said required public land application, may we be advised as to how can we accept and process the said application without lot number specified in the said application considering that pursuant to DENR Administrative Order No. 2015-01 dated March 4, 2015 and other DAOs relative to the acceptance and processing of public land applications, one of the requirements before anyone can apply a public land is a copy of map and technical description duly approved by that Office.

Furthermore, may we be advised on how can we encode and update the public land application at all stages using the LAMS if the required lot number not yet available.

Relative thereto, this Office is requesting a copy of any DAOs to serve as guidance of this Office in requiring the applicant to file a public land application even before the approval of plan on isolated survey.

For your information, record and evaluation.
